

The most intimate relationship we experience in our life is the relationship with our Mother.

What Happened?

Close your Eyes

What goes unresolved with our parents will show up again and again in our life so that we may heal the wound.

Mother: Life - Health, Love, Money, Relationships, Success, Joy and Abundance. She gives life.

Father: World - Strength to go out in the world, career, professional development and success, socializing, worthiness. He gives us wings to fly.

How do we find our way back to our Mother?

Humble - not arrogant, haughty or conceited;
unpretentious and unassuming; modest,
courteous, respectful, teachable, selfless.

Humility is the ultimate surrender to a continuous creative movement, at one with it, in all things.

Peace comes forth when everything that had been opposed finds its resolution. The opposites come together to serve the next new phase...
